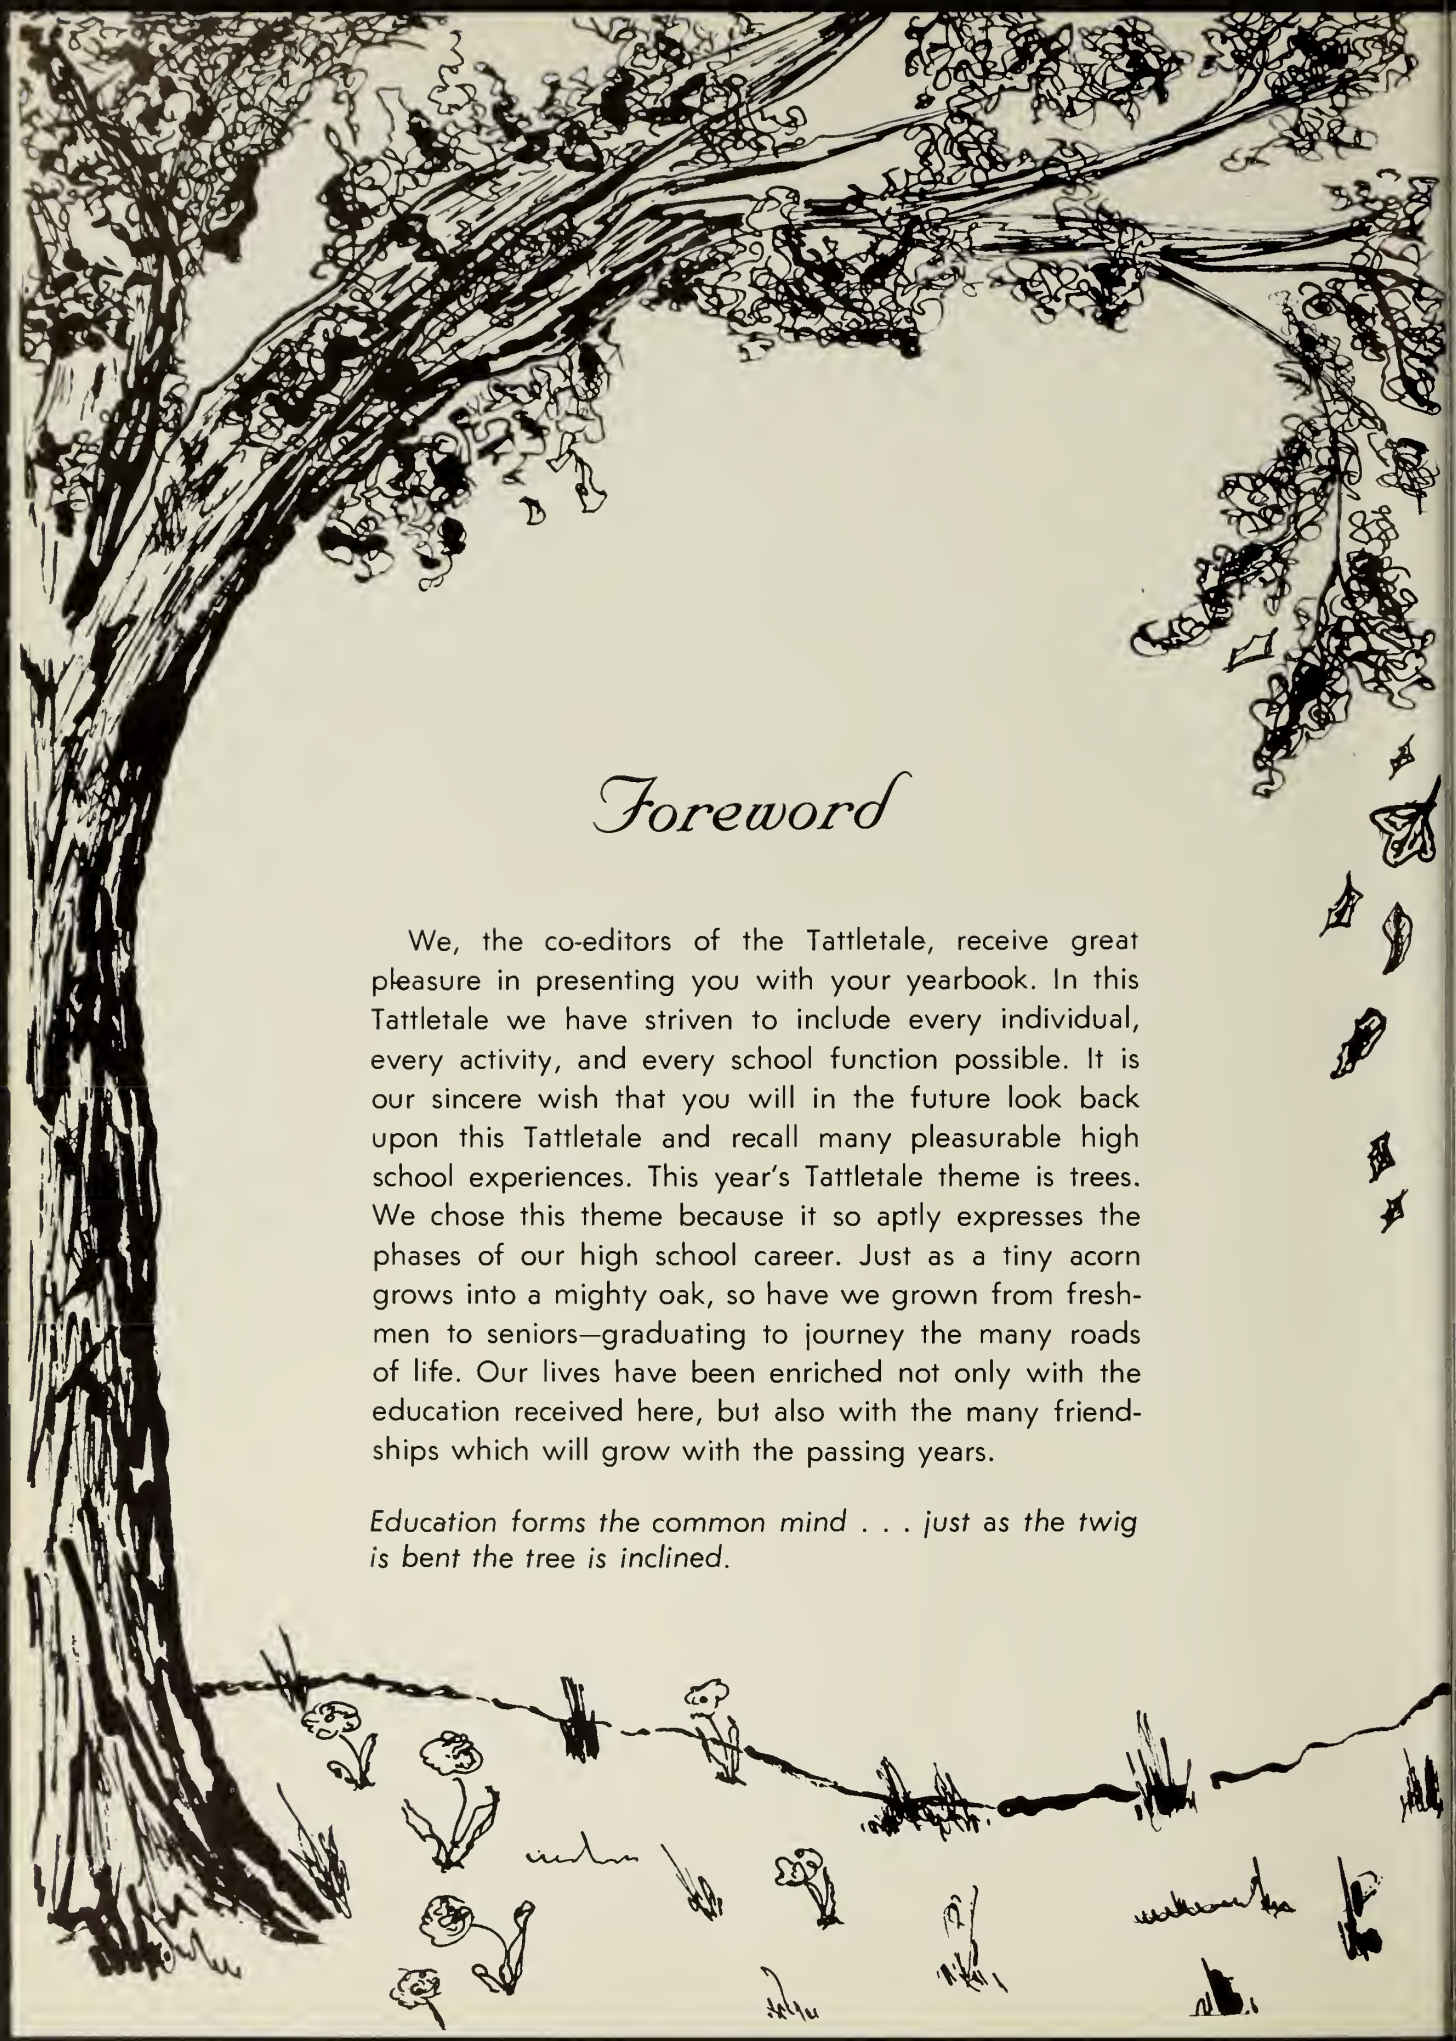
Dedication

We, the class of 1955, experience great pride in dedicating our yearbook, the Tattletale, to Mr. Harry Houghton. His friendliness has brightened the lives of everyone here at A.H.S. His loyal support of our school, witnessed by his participation in our rallies, his entertainment at our dances, and his presence at all of our football and basketball games, has been an inspiration to all of us.

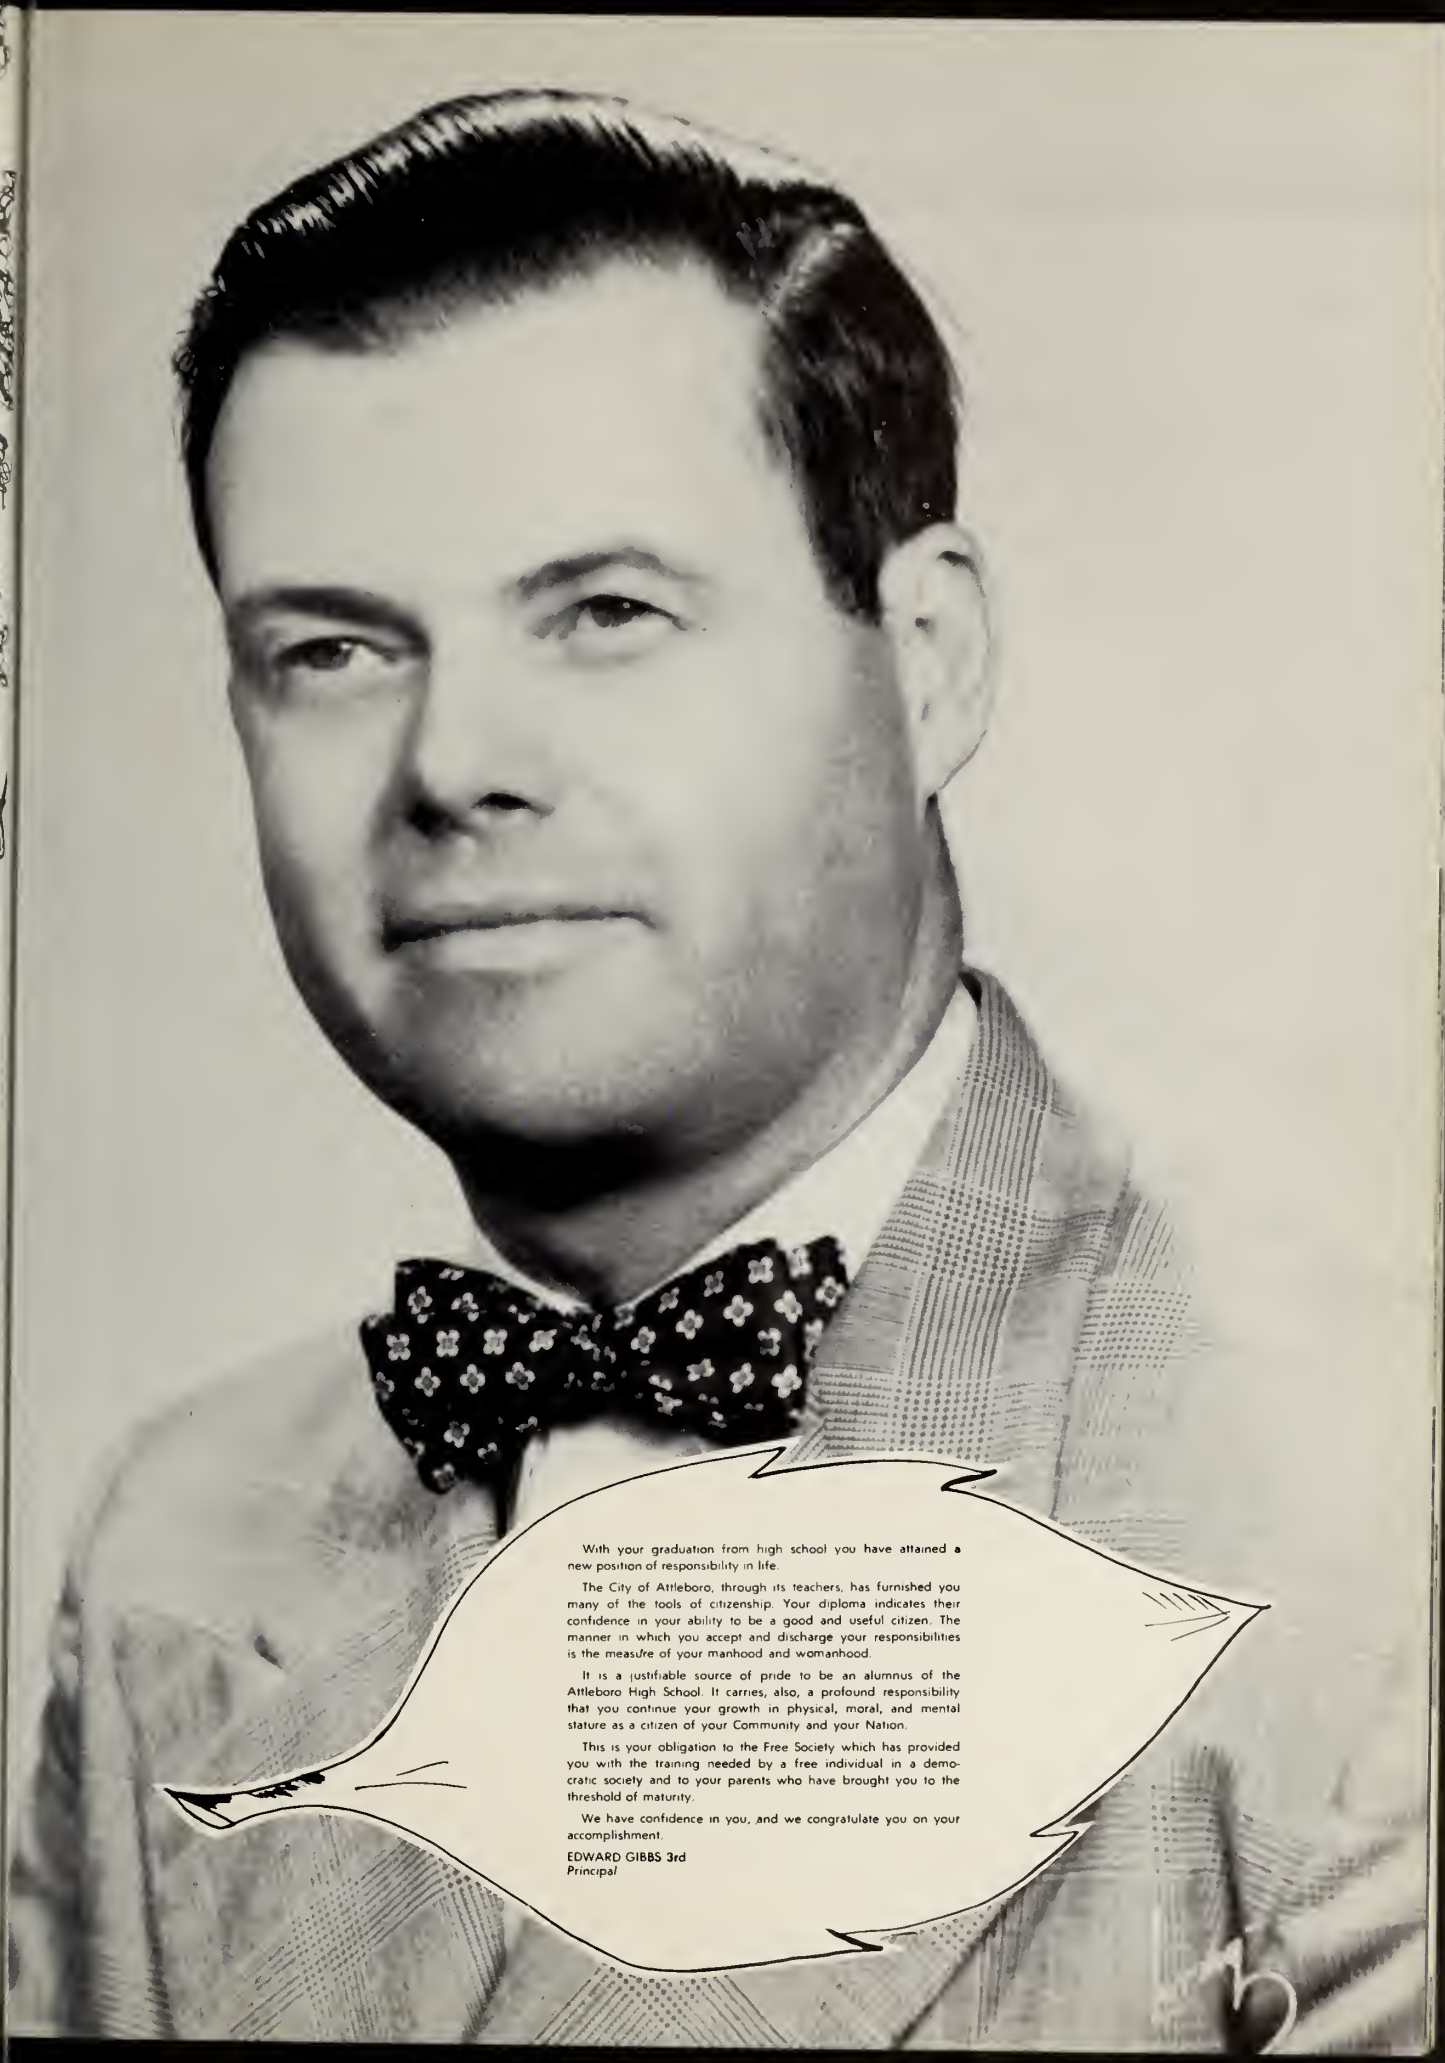
To you, "Harry," we dedicate this our yearbook with hearts full of appreciation for your kindliness, your friendliness, and your unceasing patience. May you be happy in your new venture.



Foreword

We, the co-editors of the Tattletale, receive great pleasure in presenting you with your yearbook. In this Tattletale we have striven to include every individual, every activity, and every school function possible. It is our sincere wish that you will in the future look back upon this Tattletale and recall many pleasurable high school experiences. This year's Tattletale theme is trees. We chose this theme because it so aptly expresses the phases of our high school career. Just as a tiny acorn grows into a mighty oak, so have we grown from freshmen to seniors—graduating to journey the many roads of life. Our lives have been enriched not only with the education received here, but also with the many friendships which will grow with the passing years.

Education forms the common mind . . . just as the twig is bent the tree is inclined.



With your graduation from high school you have attained a new position of responsibility in life.

The City of Attleboro, through its teachers, has furnished you many of the tools of citizenship. Your diploma indicates their confidence in your ability to be a good and useful citizen. The manner in which you accept and discharge your responsibilities is the measure of your manhood and womanhood.

It is a justifiable source of pride to be an alumnus of the Attleboro High School. It carries, also, a profound responsibility that you continue your growth in physical, moral, and mental stature as a citizen of your Community and your Nation.

This is your obligation to the Free Society which has provided you with the training needed by a free individual in a democratic society and to your parents who have brought you to the threshold of maturity.

We have confidence in you, and we congratulate you on your accomplishment.

Freshman History

We entered Attleboro High in September 1951, and a bewildered group were we. To begin our career of high schooling, we had the distinction of being the last freshman class in the city.

Our first big job was to elect our class officers. This we did amid great campaigning. The following emerged victorious: Jim Willard, President; Lolly Quintin, Vice President; Norma Sears, Secretary; and Marlene Bussiere, Treasurer.

Next came the important task of electing representatives to Student Council. They were Russell Richardson, Carolyn Tingle, Eleanor Buchanan, Carla Rae Jordan, Richard Gawlick, and Kenneth Fisher.

Carolyn Tingle became a big credit to our class by being chosen as a majorette.

The Girls' basketball team was aided by the work of Lolly Quintin, Carla Jordan, Kendra Pitman, Roberta Nerney, Kathy Sprigg, and Carolyn Tingle.

Our class dance, "Sands of Waikiki," was a great success due to the work of the officer and the dance committee consisted of Linda Stone, Kathleen Spriggs, Robert Nerney, Rita Kriegal, Richard Gawlick, Barbara Demers, Mrs. Gerlach, and Miss Pierce.

And so we left our Freshman days looking forward to another year of fun and learning when we would be one step closer to being "upperclassmen."

Sophomore History

"We will never be Freshmen again" that's what we said when our sophomore year finally came.

We all got busy and elected as our class officers: President, Russ Richardson; Vice President, Linda Stone; Secretary, Gerry Cooper; and Treasurer, Bob Johnson.

Football season arrived and our sophomore class was well represented by Rollie Kerkhoff, Ronnie Salley, Don Sinclair, Bruce Rigby, Phil Boyd, and Bernie Barrett.

We also had Carla Jordan on the cheerleaders squad well representing us.

Soon the armory was ringing with the cheers and groans of the many basketball fans. Our "basketgetters" of the year were, Dick Gawlick, Dick Pariseau, Howie Tozier, Mike La Croix, Bowen Dieterle, Ray Wright, Oscar Beach, Bernie Barrett, Bruce Weir, Joe Devaney, Jim King, and Bobby Dechesneau.

The girls' basketball team had an excellent season with Carolyn Tingle, Roberta Nerney, Kathy Spriggs, Evelyn Costa, Gerry Cooper, Kendra Pitman and Lolly Quintin doing some fancy foot work on the floor.

"Spring Fever" was our social of the year, headed by a wonderful committee which included Pauline Butler, Lois Entwistle, Shirley Gifford, Pat Heussler, Joe McKenna, Roberta Nerney, Norma Sears, Marianne Stachurski, Russ Richardson, Linda Stone, Gerry Cooper, Bob Johnson, and Oscar Beach, it was a wonderful dance and very much enjoyed by everyone.

We were well represented in Student Council by Gerry Cooper, Maggie Galligan, June Fine, Jim King and Russ Richardson.

Time came for choosing new cheerleaders and Pat Gavin, Gerry Cooper and Sue Worrall won the honor for our class.

Our sophomore year came to a quick end and with it we left behind our happiness and sorrows looking forward to being upperclassmen at last.

Junior History

Success at last! We're finally considered upperclassmen who are looking forward to a very prosperous Junior Year.

After the vigorous campaigning for class officers, these people took the responsibility: Dick Gawlick, President; Bernie Barrett, Vice President; Gerry Cooper, Secretary; Kendra Pitman, Treasurer.

Serving as our Junior cheerleaders were Pat Gavin, Gerry Cooper, Carla Jordan, and Sue Worrall. The girls did a wonderful job representing our Junior class. At the end of the school season, Gerry was elected head cheerleader for the following year.

Compliments go out to our ring committee. The class officers: Lee Baker, Carl Frova, Ellen Liscomb, Lolly Quintin, Linda Stone, and Oscar Beach, who made an excellent choice in selecting our class rings.

Events rolled by so rapidly that we soon realized it was time for our social. The dance committee finally decided on an appropriate title, "June in January." Everyone had a marvelous evening dancing to the music of Nicky Peters and his orchestra. It proved to be both a social and a financial success.

The Student Council did a wonderful job in everything they attempted this year. Representing the class of "55" on the council were Gerry Cooper, Margaret Galligan, Mike LaCroix, Eddie Nelson, Linda Stone. At the end of the football season the Student Council sponsored a Victory Dance. Our own Ellen Liscomb was chosen queen.

Battling their way to a touchdown on the football field were these able boys from the Junior Class. Carl Frova, Bowen Dieterle, Phil Boyd, Ronnie Boivin, Russ Richardson, Karl Salathe, Don Clegg, Howie Tozier, Mike Quaglia, Dick Pariseau, Bob Garlick, Bruce Rigby, Joe McKenna, Frank Zarek, Bernie Barrett, Oscar Beach, Don Sinclair and Rollie Kerkhoff. The fellows all turned in a record to be proud of.

Adding to the glory of the class of 55 on the diamond were Joe McDougal, Dick Gawlick, Howie Tozier, Carl Frova, Paul St. Germain, and Mike Quaglia.

The old Armory was the scene of many victories for the Attleboro team, which worked hard and came up with such stars as Dick Gawlick, Bowen Dieterele, Jack Tannock, Don Sinclair, Bruce Rigby, Lee Baker, Dick Pariseau, Russell Remiers, and Bob MacKinley.

Turning in a fine record were both the girls basketball and baseball teams. Playing under the basketball spotlight were Roberta Nerney, Evelyn Costa, Sandra Smith, Kathleen Sprigg, Kendra Pitman and Lolly Quintin. The softball team was undefeated this year. Contributing to its glory were Marilyn O'Connor, Marianne Stachurski, Sandra Smith, Yvonne Rapoza, Evie Costa, and Nancy Heap.

Batons whirled while down the field came the majorettes. Among those from the class of 55 were Carolyn Tingle, Fran Tetreault, and Lolly Quintin. Carolyn was chosen head majorette for the following year.

Linda Stone was the representative sent from Attleboro High School to attend Girls' State, while Russ Richardson, Dick Gawlick, Carl Frova, and Ernie Jost went to Boys' State.

The Junior girls initiated into Try-Y were Linda Stone, Roberta Nerney, Dotty Keane, Carolyn Tingle, Margaret Gilligan, Barb Demers, Gerry Cooper, Kendra Pitman, Sue Worrall, Pat Gavin, June Fine, Joan Fine, Ellen Silvia.

One of the most beautiful and touching spectacles of the year was the induction of Roberta Nerney, Linda Stone, Carl Frova, and Robert Johnson into the National Honor Society. The class is very proud of them and wishes them much success.

Our Junior year was over altogether too soon, but now we had something to look foreward to, our Senior year. We were determined to try as hard as we could to uphold the excellent records left by the Senior classes preceding us.

Senior History

"Seniors at last!" Those words excited some, made others feel sad, but everyone was looking forward to this last year to try to make it the best yet.

To help make this senior year our best, we wisely chose these people as our class officers: Bernie Barrett, President; Bob Johnson, Vice President; Gerry Cooper, Secretary; and Kendra Pitman, Treasurer.

The first dance of the year "The Cheerleaders Dance" was well attended and a financial success.

In football, the seniors were well represented by Bernie Barrett, Ronnie Boiven, Phil Boyd, Carl Frova, Rollie Kerkoff, Mike LaCroix, Joe McKenna, Dick Pariseau, Russell Richardson, Bruce Rigby, Ronald Salley, Don Sinclair, Howie Tozier, and Frank Zarek. Leading these boys this year was a new coach, Red Madden. And to cheer the team on there was Barbara Demers, Patty Gavin, Carla Jordon, Roberta Nerney, with Gerry Cooper as head cheerleader.

We had a fine group of Majorettes to accompany the band, the seniors among them being Lolly Quintin and Fran Tetreault; as head majorette was Carolyn Tingle.

Newly inducted from the class of 55 to Tri-Y this year was Marlene Bussiere, Kayda Campbell, Shirley Gifford, Joan Kinny, Patty Lincoln, Lolly Quintin, Norma Sears, Sandy Smith, Marianne Stachurski, Theresa Walsh, and Joanne Wilmarth. The girls who had been taken into this group in their Junior year were Joan and June Fine, Patty Gavin, Margaret Galligan, Roberta Nerney, Kendra Pitman, Ellen Silva, and Linda Stone.

To represent the class of '55 in Student Council, our senior home rooms wisely chose as their representatives, June Fine, Gerry Cooper, Bob MacKinley, Dick Gawlik, Marianne Stachurski, Russ Richardson, Barbara La Fontaine, Eddie Nelson, Barbara Demers, Jimmie Newton, Richard Pariseau, Bernie Barrett, Margaret Galligan, Dotty Keane.

The Senior Play, "We Shook The Family Tree," was a huge success and Mr. Willey acted as faculty advisor with Joanne Wilmarth, as student director. The members of the cast were Lee Baker, Weltha Boeker, Sheila Blacklock, Cora Pharmakis, Dick Gawlik, Rita Kriegel, Roberta Nerney, Joan Robinson, Carl Salathe, Don Linstrom, Carolyn Tingle, and Jimmy Willard.

The Victory Dance turned out well and Carolyn Tingle, a senior, was chosen queen.

A new club, the Key Club, was established this year consisting of all boys. It was a great help when the boys acted as ushers at the Thanksgiving Game.

Basketball had a most successful season at the armory this year, the seniors being represented by Lee Baker, Bowen Dieterle, Dick Gawlik, Dick Pariseau, Bruce Rigby.

Girls' basketball was also active this year with Sandy Smith, Evelyn Costa, and Kendra Pitman, as senior team members.

"Dreamland in Orchids," the senior prom, was a social and financial success, and was aided greatly by the senior social committee consisting of Marianne Stachurski, Dale Brough, Linda Stone, Joe McKenna, Dave Doucette, Don Linstrom, Don Sinclair, Sue Worrall, Kayda Campbell, Marcia Tomilson, class officers, and art students.

Linda Stone was quite appropriately chosen as the D.A.R. good citizen by the senior class and the faculty.

Now we are at the end of our high school years and the future lies ahead. Let us hope that each one of us will succeed in whatever we set out to do.
